PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, infantile paralysis is now nearing its summer peak, crippling boys and girls, men and women; and

WHEREAS, victims of this disease look to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis to help them in their affliction by assuming costs of patient care when needed, providing for recruitment of professional personnel as well as supplying respirators, rocking beds, hot pack machines, crutches, wheel chairs and other special equipment; and

WHEREAS, the cost of care for polio victims has risen higher than ever before while at the same time enormous sums must be spent on the study of a hopeful vaccine and to supply the public with gamma globulin for temporary immunity; and

WHEREAS, reserves for fighting polio have been drained to exhaustion, seriously jeopardizing the entire program; and

WHEREAS, many of our fellow citizens are answering the urgent call for help by turning from their normal holidays and recreation to work as March of Dimes Emergency Volunteers;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sigurd Anderson, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 16-31, 1954, as in the State of South Dakota and urge residents of this great State to give generously to a humanitarian cause at a critical moment in the battle against polio.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 14th day of August, 1954

..... Sigurd Anderson
Governor
